In Politics Uncommon men are common—just as in Heaven an angel is nobody in particular.

We believe we have earned your ballot because in all CROSS establishments Uncommon articles are common.

Cross wares, though essentially novel in conception, have naught to do with those fads that bring more notoriety than repute.

They are not influenced by those bizarre tastes which the wise repudiate.

ELECTION NIGHT'S RECEPTION READY

Hotels Prepared for the Crowds Expected on Upper Broadway

Hotels, theatres and restaurants of upper Broadway will keep open house to-night for all who wish to take part in the pursuits of the evening, which will comprise a large and handsome tribute to the product of Edison's genius so well known throughout—the incandescent lamp. Incidentally election returns will be shown.

Full candle power ahead has been ordered by all the maitres d'hôtels. Police regulations will preclude the usual election night throng from certain undetermined parts of Broadway proper, but nobody is keeping anybody from the gilded salons a manger.

Theatres have been kept out long in advance. Table reservations at the principal hotels and restaurants have been in demand as never before, except on New Year's Eve. New York has money to spend this year, and it's going to be a big night, whether the favored candidates win, lose or draw.

Waldorf Recognizes Night

The Waldorf-Astoria for the first time will recognize election night as a fête occasion. The grand ballroom will be opened at 8 o'clock, and there will be a screen upon which the returns will be flashed. At first it was planned only to show the returns in the grill and Rose rooms. All reservations there were taken by Friday, and the Empire room was added. This was filled, and the grand ballroom, seating more than 1,000, was resorted to. George C. Boldt says the Waldorf expects to accommodate 5,000 to-night.

Lindley M. Garrison, ex-Secretary of War, will be the guest of Elisha Lee at a dinner in the grill room. Others who will be Mr. Lee's guests are J. T. Van Loan, T. O. McGill, N. J. Truett and Joseph Johnson.

If President Wilson is reflected a dancer, made up to represent him, will fox trot across the grand ballroom of the Hotel Majestic with a girl costumed as Columbia. If Mrs. Hughes is elected the impersonation of the President will give way to a dancer made up to resemble the former Governor.

At the McAlpin, where between 3,000 and 4,000 are expected for the returns and the things that come a la carte, the celebration will eclipse that of last New Year's Eve. Impromptu Hughes and Wilson parades about the dining rooms are expected to enliven the evening as reports from the various states come in. Three hundred members of the Rotary Club will receive the returns at a dinner on the roof.

Stagefolk at Claridge

Theatre folk will watch the returns at the Claridge. At the Dance Club celebration will be Mr. and Mrs. John Drew, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Olcott, Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Martin Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hitchcock, Miss Ada Lovelace and others. Miss Grace Field is president of the club.

Secretary of State Lansing, with Mrs. Lansing, will come from Watertown after he has cast his ballot. They will entertain in the Louis XIV room of the Biltmore. Vance C. McCormick, chairman, and several members of the Democratic National Committee will receive returns there. Colonel E. M. House, who probably is as keenly interested in the election as anybody, will be present.

Big Bill Edwards, former Street Cleaning Commissioner, who headed an organization of college men for William Wilson, will entertain a party of former football stars. Others who have reservations at the Biltmore are Charles M. Schwab, C. K. G. Billings and John A. Wilson, the President's cousin.

U-BOAT SINKS LANAO OFF SPANISH COAST

Thirty of Crew from Former American Ship Are Landed

London, Nov. 6.—Lloyds announces that the steamship Lanao was sunk on October 28 by a submarine. Thirty men from the Lanao were landed at Barry by the Norwegian steamship Tromp.

The Lanao formerly was owned by Findlay, Millar & Co., of Manila, and recently was transferred from American to Norwegian registry.

German submarines have been active for several weeks off the Spanish coast, where the Lanao apparently was credited with the statement that he had received orders to sink all vessels bound for England. Spanish vessels, it is said, later were exempted on undertaking to carry nothing but fruit.

Peanut Strangles Baby

Andrea Dagistana, eleven months old, in some way obtained a peanut while in his mother's arms in their home, 208 Mulberry Street, last night. Sucking it into his throat, he began to strangle. Mrs. Dagistana made frantic haste to the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary with the infant, where Dr. Doherty did his utmost to relieve the baby, which died before an operation could be performed.

Koelbe, Peved, Quits Tammany

Alphonse G. Koelbe, active pro-German advocate, recording secretary of the New York County Democratic Committee and chairman of the Democratic committee of Manhattan, has resigned from the last two positions.

"Considering Tammany's course in this campaign, I never wish again to be officially connected with it," Koelbe wrote to Thomas F. Smith, Tammany secretary.

Also Florentine and Venetian Fire Dogs, Electroliners, Royal Worcester, Sevres, Wedgwood, Doulton and Dresden Porcelains; Ivory Carvings, Miniatures, Cloisonnes, Enamels, Bohemian and Cut Glass, Oil Paintings, Water Colors, Artists' Proof Etchings by Haig, Whistler and others, beautiful Onyx Pedestals and Carrara Marbles, Oriental Rugs, Sheffield Plate, Solid Silver, several fine Empire Clocks and Clock Sets and many other objects suitable for home adornment.

STREETS WHICH ARE BARRED TO ELECTION NIGHT CROWDS

Shaded areas are those within which restrictions are to apply. Within these areas streetcar and vehicular traffic will be permitted as usual. Pedestrian traffic will be regulated by the police in such a manner that pedestrians desiring to reach points on Broadway and Seventh Avenue between transverse streets will be permitted to do so, but the circulating crowds who have no particular business along Broadway and Seventh Avenue will be excluded, except that pedestrians may be permitted to cross Broadway and Seventh Avenue along the usual street crossing lines at all street crossings except Forty-ninth Street and Seventh Avenue, and are to be kept moving.

SOCIALISTS CLAIM 5 CONGRESSMEN

Say Three Will Win in This City—Predict Oklahoma Victory

Confident of the election of two Congressmen in Wisconsin and two, if not three, in New York, and predicting the strong possibility of the State of Oklahoma going Socialist, leaders of the Socialist party conducted their campaign right up to midnight last night.

Representative Steyer London is conceded to be practically sure of reelection in the 12th District. U. Solomon, secretary of the Socialist state organization, predicted that Morris Hillquit would be an easy winner in the 20th District, where he is running against Bernard Rosenblatt, on the Democratic ticket, and Isaac Siegel, Republican. He also believes there is a strong chance of William F. Feltenbaum carrying the 10th District in Brooklyn. The latter is a strong Socialist section.

Confident in Milwaukee

In Milwaukee, where Allen L. Benson, the party's Presidential candidate, has been taking a part in the wind-up, the Socialists hope to send Victor L. Berger back to Congress and Winfield R. Gaylord with him, as well as carrying the whole county ticket.

Mr. Solomon has strong hopes that Oklahoma may elect the first Socialist United States Senator.

"Under the new registration law down there more than 75,000 signed themselves as Socialist," he said. "If all these should vote that way to-morrow and there should be several thousand others who drop from the other two parties we stand a very good chance of carrying the state. Of course, this is the only state which Benson has a chance of carrying."

Record Socialistic Campaign

Arthur E. Reimer, candidate for President on the Social Labor ticket, ended a nation-wide campaign here yesterday and left for his home in Boston to vote. He held a conference with Arnold Petersen, the national secretary, in the afternoon.

Mr. Reimer probably has the distinction of having covered more territory and spoken in more cities than any of the other Presidential candidates. Both he and his running mate, Caleb Harrison, have fitted through many states, Mr. Reimer making two transcontinental tours.

WOMEN TO MANAGE STORES FOR VOTERS

Republican Workers Plan to Get Men to the Polls

Women in politics means women with hot coffee and sandwiches, according to the theories of the Women's Republican Committee. Every election district will be covered by delegates of the women's organization this morning. Varick Boswell and Mrs. Claudia Q. Murphy.

In many of the districts the women have offered to patrol the streets, and wherever they find a man too busy to go out and vote to run his shop for him. This work was done on registration days, and the women became so expert in slicing ham and cobbling shoes that the proprietors of shops show no hesitancy in leaving business in their hands.

Mrs. Nelson H. Henry, Mrs. Eli C. Smith, Mrs. Stanley L. Otis, Mrs. L. P. Prisk, Mrs. John F. Yawger, Mrs. Alexander Jackson and Mrs. L. B. Shepard will be among the sandwich vendors.

The Republican women will dispense literature two hundred feet from the polls, but in this they will not have the same monopoly as in the sandwich business, for the Democratic women will be there with their last minute appeals to the voters. The Democratic women's van made its last stand in Columbus Circle last night.

Nebraska Expects Record Vote

Omaha, Nov. 6.—Interest in national and state tickets and the prohibitory amendment, with fair weather predicted for the election, will bring out Nebraska's largest vote to-morrow, it was predicted by political leaders to-night.

RED FIRE AND ORATORY TIRE HUGHES WOMEN

Campaign of Education Is Favored for the Future

The new woman is going to invent a new kind of political campaign, according to Miss Mary Antin, who spoke at the welcome home for the Hughes campaign women yesterday at the Hotel Astor.

"Women aren't going to stand for this eleventh-hour campaigning, with red fire and oratory, where the man who speaks last and loudest wins the votes," she said. "Of course, in our trip across the country this time we had to put up with the red fire, because we are new at this game. In the future, however, the women are going to insist on constant and uninterrupted education before election."

Dr. Katharine B. Davis, Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, Mrs. William Curtis Demarest, Mrs. Frank Mebbins, Miss Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. Alice S. Burke and Mrs. Maud Howe Elliott all had a word to say about the success of the train. Miss Alice Carpenter, chairman of the women's city committee of the Hughes Alliance, presided.

Du Pont Employes May Vote

Salem, N. J., Nov. 6.—Fifty registered voters, who had been challenged, and thirteen of whom had been arrested, will be able to vote as a result of a decision to-day by the Salem County Court. The court ruled the men had been legally registered. It had been alleged the men were colonized from the du Pont Powder Company's works at Carney's Point, but it was shown each of the men had lived at Carney's Point for more than a year.

ELECTION CROWDS TO BE HELD BACK

Subway Mining Bars Night Throngs from Most of Upper Broadway

Although the lights will be as bright and numerous as ever, Broadway will be a strangely deserted thoroughfare after 6 o'clock to-night. Except about the Times Square triangle, the police will keep the street and walks clear of their accustomed election night throngs between Thirty-ninth and Fifth streets, where the subway miners are at work.

Another restricted area extends along Broadway between Thirtieth and Thirty-seventh streets and on the east side of Seventh Avenue between Forty-first and Forty-seventh streets.

Some Can Pass Lines

While no general promenade will be permitted in the restricted territory, those wishing to enter theatres, hotels or restaurants will be permitted to pass the police lines at the nearest cross street.

At the request of Police Commissioner Arthur Woods, the Public Service Commission has assigned a number of engineers to districts where subway excavations are being made. They will decide how many persons will be permitted on the planking.

This will be the first election night in history that the crowds have not had Broadway for their very own. In the past the police have directed traffic up Broadway on one side and down on the other. Inspector Thomas Myers, of the traffic and marine division, is charged with the enforcement of the new orders. He will have at his command 350 men in addition to the policemen regularly on duty.

Every patrolman on the force was ordered on duty at midnight. Clerical and station house details were stripped to reinforce the commands outside. An important part of the traffic work will be keeping in circulation the crowds which will swarm Park Row and City Hall Square, watching the bulletin boards and the Tribune signals from the Woolworth tower. This work will be in charge of Inspector Dwyer.

Four Departments Cooperate

To prevent serious damage from bonfires the Police, Fire and Street Cleaning departments and the Borough President's office have been cooperating for weeks. Every effort possible has been made to deter the building of fires, and the forces of the four departments are all ready to stamp out the first spark of any blaze to-night. The Fire Department has arranged to detail two firemen, with apparatus, to every police station in the city. Fifteen fast automobiles will be in readiness to locate fires and quench them. The firemen met with considerable difficulty last year, and in some cases were roughly handled when they tried to put fires out. This year a policeman will accompany every automobile. Last election there were 169 fires and the year before 159.

Employees of the Borough President's office have been assisting the other departments to eliminate the possibility of a large number of fires, inspectors having been poking about the streets for weeks reporting on all rubbish which could be used.

Liquor War Hot in Michigan

Detroit, Nov. 6.—The election in Michigan to-morrow is expected to bring out the heaviest vote in the state's history. The fight to make Michigan dry by constitutional amendment and the counter contest to let each community regulate its liquor traffic under an amendment providing for home rule are issues which overshadow even the Presidential struggle.

You Can't Fool Labor, Mr. Calamity Howler!

Read the Republican advertisements in to-day's papers for your own amusement

Then Consider These FACTS:

Peace and Prosperity under the Wilson Administration have brought wages to the highest level reached in the history of this or any other country, according to the cold, indisputable facts recorded in the books of the United States Labor Department.

About 20,000,000 wage-earners of the country are now in the full enjoyment of an increase of close to $5,000,000,000 annually over any period of the "protected" tariff rule under Roosevelt's and Taft's Administrations.

During both of these Administrations common labor received as low as 14 cents an hour, and the wages of "one-tenth of the workers of the country were not more than $1,000 a year, the wages of one-half of the workers less than $500 a year, or considerably under what has been computed to be a living wage."

The average earning now of the unskilled worker is from $965 to $1,110 annually.

The average annual earnings of the skilled worker is from $1,250 to $2,100. The highest average for skilled workers is $2,250 a year.

WHAT OUR FOREMOST TARIFF EXPERT SAYS:

Prof. Irving Fisher, head of the Department of Economics at Yale University, and a famous authority on the tariff, in a signed statement says:

"'Foreign competition' after the war is a good bogey to frighten children with.

"The truth is that the wage-earner has in general made less progress when our tariff has been high than when it has been low, and that wages in 'protected' industries have ranked with the lowest in the country.

"In Europe we find the countries with the highest tariff having the lowest wages.

"Who are these would-be champions of labor, who ask its votes for another Payne-Aldrich tariff? Not the laboring men themselves, not disinterested students of economics. They are those whose 'special' interests would be served by another Payne-Aldrich tariff. In some instances, at least, as I happen to know, these interests are trying to coerce their employes to vote for Hughes."
